ORDER GRANTING JOINT STIPULATION TO EXTEND
PLAINTIFFS' TIME TO RESPOND
TO THE COURT'S ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

(THIRD REQUEST)

[ECF No. 109]

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure ("FRCP") 6 and the Court's Local of Civil Practice ("LR") 7-1, Plaintiffs and Defendants hereby stipulate, subject to the Court's approval,

1 to extend, to and until October 13, 2023, Plaintiffs' time to respond to the Court's Order to 2 show cause filed on July 24, 2023. ECF No. 103. Plaintiffs' response is currently due today,
 3 September 15, 2023. This is the parties' third stipulation for an extension of time for the 4 purpose identified herein. In support of this Stipulation, the parties rely upon the following:

5 By Order filed July 24, 2023, the Court dismissed Plaintiffs' federal claims and directed
 6 Plaintiffs to show cause why the state claims may proceed. See ECF No. 103. Since the 7 Court's issuance of that Order, the parties have been engaged in good faith discussions to 8 resolve this case. The parties are continuing those discussions and hopeful this case can be 9 resolved, which will obviate the need for further litigation. However, in order to permit the 10 parties to continue engaging in settlement discussions, and conserve attorney fees and litigation
 11 costs, additional time is needed. The parties respectfully request the Court extend Plaintiffs'
 12 time to respond to the show cause Order to and until October 13, 2023. This additional time
 13 will permit Plaintiffs sufficient time to either file a response to the show cause Order or allow 14 the parties to reach a resolution.

15 DATED this 15th day of September 2023.

16 Respectfully submitted,

17 /s/ Paul J. Anderson

18 /s/ Paul S. Padda

9 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any future requests to extend time to respond will
